

McKEEVER SCHOOL OF IRISH DANCE NEWSLETTER DECEMBER- JANUARY 2016

Spreading the Holiday Cheer Around Sacramento

December was a busy month! We had a total of 6 performances. Four of which were with the incredible Sacramento Gay Men's Chorus at St. John's Episcopal Church. Next we had a daytime performance with the Rotary Club, and lastly a Christmas Multicultural Concert at Unity of Sacramento Church. Thank you to each and every dancer who got up on stage and performed! From our Tiny Tots to our Champions and Adults, you are all such wonderful ambassadors for Irish dance in Sacramento.

Newest Beginners Get Set to Compete!

With 35 registered competitors at the next competition in January we are definitely growing as a school and its so wonderful! We have Blake A., Brady A. , Juna A., Olivia B., Emily D., Amy D., Olive K., Sean L, Kerrigan L., Ireland M., Nora O., Devin P., Sophia T., and Madilyn W., all competing for the first time as McKeever Dancers! Getting up there is half the challenge! Have fun and know we are all excited to see you compete!

Newest Champs!

Congrats to our hardworking and determined dancer Kiki M. who traveled down to Southern California at the start of December to compete at Feis Na Nollaig hosted by the Claddagh School. She earned her last Prizewinner first and became a Preliminary Champion!! We are so proud of you Kiki! Also a big welcome to new McKeever dancer Heather N. who has recently come to us from Reno! Welcome to the McKeever School Heather and we know many great things are coming your way in 2017!

Art Celebrates Friendship!

Adult dancers Ann R. and Andi K. are very close friends and dedicated Irish dancers. Ann celebrated this friendship this Holiday Season by giving Andi a very special gift. She commissioned a portrait of the two of them dancing in McKeever costumes. The talented artist is Amber Rankin who is also one of our Competitive Adult dancers. Her work is outstanding! Thank you for sharing your talents Amber!
